PRESS RELEASE

“The formal creation of Fiat Chrysler Automobiles and its debut on the New York Stock Exchange is a historic moment,” said FCA Chairman, John Elkann. “Today, building on the foundations and aspirations of Fiat S.p.A. and Chrysler Group LLC, we are beginning a completely new phase that will see our Group play a major role in the future of the global automotive industry. We are ready to embrace this ambitious challenge with determination.”

FCA Chief Executive Officer Sergio Marchionne said: “Our listing today on Wall Street is the culmination of five-and-a-half years’ work to achieve an extraordinary union. FCA has set upon an aggressive course, in pursuit of the goals we laid out during our Investor Day on May 6. The path we have chosen is not the path of least resistance. We have embraced the spirit of the explorer, strengthened by the pursuit of challenge and an appreciation of diversity. FCA’s listing marks the hard-won arrival at a destination. Yet, like so many milestones, it is not simply an ending, but, above all, a new beginning. Today marks the beginning of our journey as one global automaker, one FCA.”
