² This percentage does not take into account voting rights attributable to the company’s loyalty voting structure. Exor’s voting power in FCA is approximately 47.69%, calculated as the ratio of (i) the total number of common shares and special voting shares beneficially owned by Exor to (ii) the aggregate number of outstanding common shares and outstanding special voting shares (or approximately 46.65% based on the aggregate issued common shares and special voting shares including treasury shares).

ITEM 1. Security and Issuer.

This Schedule 13D relates to the common shares of Fiat Chrysler Automobiles N.V. (formerly Fiat Investments N.V.) (“FCA” or the “Issuer”). FCA’s principal executive offices are currently located at 240 Bath Road, Slough SL1 4DX, United Kingdom. Its telephone number is +44 (0) 1753 519581.

ITEM 2. Identity and Background.

(a)-(c) This Schedule 13D is filed by Exor S.p.A. (“Exor”), a società per azioni organized under the laws of the Republic of Italy. Exor is an investment company, which focuses its business on long-term investments in global companies in diversified sectors, mainly in Europe and the United States. The address of Exor’s principal business and principal office is Via Nizza, 250, Turin, Italy. The name, business address, present principal occupation or employment (and the name, principal business and address of any corporation or other organization in which such employment is conducted) and citizenship of each executive officer and director of Exor, each person controlling Exor and each executive officer and director of any corporation or other person in control of Exor are set forth in Schedule A hereto.

(d)-(e) Mr. Gabetti was charged in a criminal proceeding with market manipulation for disseminating “false or misleading information concerning financial instruments” in relation to a press announcement issued in August 2005 by Giovanni Agnelli e C. S.a.p.az. (“G.A.”), of which Mr. Gabetti was at the time. Mr. Gabetti was acquitted by the Court of Turin in December 2010. In February 2013, the Court of Appeals of Turin reversed Mr. Gabetti’s acquittal and sentenced him to one year and four months of imprisonment, and a fine of €600,000 and imposed a one year period of disqualification from public office, from serving as an officer of certain companies and from negotiations with the public administration. Mr. Gabetti appealed this ruling to the Italian Supreme Court (Corte di Cassazione) and the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR). The ECHR ruled that the criminal proceeding must be dropped because Mr. Gabetti had already been sanctioned by the Italian securities regulator, CONSOB, in a regulatory proceeding involving the identical allegations. On December 17, 2013, the Italian Supreme Court annulled the February 2013 judgment of the Turin Court of Appeals.

During the last five years, neither Exor nor, to the best knowledge of Exor, other than as described above any of the persons listed in Schedule A, has been (i) convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (ii) a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws, or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

(f) Not applicable.

ITEM 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

This Schedule 13D relates to common shares of Fiat Chrysler Automobiles received by Exor upon effectiveness of the merger (the "Merger") of Fiat S.p.A. ("Fiat") with and into FCA, pursuant to the common cross-border merger terms dated June 15, 2014, approved by the boards of directors of Fiat and FCA (previously, Fiat Investments N.V.) (the "Merger plan"), attached as Exhibit 1 to this Schedule 13D.

On August 1, 2014 the extraordinary general shareholders' meetings of Fiat approved the Merger and, following the satisfaction or waiver of conditions precedent under the Merger Plan, the Merger became effective on October 12, 2014.

Pursuant to the Merger Plan, upon effectiveness of the Merger on October 12, 2014, Fiat shareholders received one (1) FCA common share for each Fiat ordinary share that they held.

In addition, all Fiat shareholders that (i) were present or represented by proxy at the Fiat extraordinary general meeting approving the Merger (regardless of how they voted on the Merger), (ii) continued to own their shares until effectiveness of the Merger, and (iii) duly provided a form of election, received, for each FCA common share received in the Merger, one special voting share (a "Special Voting Share") granting the holder one additional vote for each Special Voting Share held.

Immediately prior to the Merger, Exor held 375,803,870 ordinary shares of Fiat equal to approximately 30.78% of Fiat's outstanding ordinary share capital (or approximately 30.04% of Fiat's issued ordinary share capital including treasury shares). Upon effectiveness of the Merger, Exor, received, based on the one-to-one exchange ratio under the Merger Plan, 375,803,870 FCA common shares. These shares represent approximately 32.20% of FCA's outstanding common shares (as a result of the cancellation of 53,916,397 shares for which exit rights were exercised in the Merger that were not acquired by other shareholders), or approximately 31.26% of FCA's issued common shares including treasury shares. In addition, Exor received 375,803,870 special voting shares. Exor holds approximately 47.69% of the voting power in FCA, based on the aggregate number of common shares and special voting shares outstanding following the completion of the Merger (or approximately 46.65% based on the aggregate issued common shares and special voting shares including treasury shares).

References to, and descriptions of, the Merger and the Merger Plan throughout this Schedule 13D are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Merger Plan incorporated by reference as Exhibit 1 to this Schedule 13D.

ITEM 4. Purpose of Transaction.

(a)-(j) As described under Item 3 above, which is incorporated by reference herein, Exor acquired the common shares of FCA as a result of the Merger.

The principal objective of Exor's investment in FCA is the creation of value over time for all shareholders, by supporting FCA's business growth strategies which will be identified and adopted by the board of directors and the management of FCA.

Exor does not have any present plans or proposals which relate to or would result in: (i) any acquisition by any person of additional securities of FCA, or any disposition of securities of FCA; (ii) any extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving FCA or any of its subsidiaries; (iii) any sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of FCA or any of its subsidiaries; (iv) any change in the present board of directors or management of FCA, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board; (v) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of FCA; (vi) any other material change in FCA's business or corporate structure; (vii) any change in FCA's charter or bylaws or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of FCA by any person; (viii) any delisting from a national securities exchange or any loss of authorization for quotation in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association of a class of securities of FCA; (ix) any termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Exchange Act of a class of equity securities of FCA; or (x) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Exor expects to evaluate on an ongoing basis FCA's financial condition and prospects and its interest in, and intentions with respect to, FCA. Accordingly, Exor reserves the right to change its plans as it deems appropriate. For example, Exor may at any time and from time to time (1) acquire additional securities of FCA in open market or privately negotiated transactions or pursuant to the exercise of warrants, stock options or convertible or exchangeable securities; (2) dispose of such securities; (3) enter into privately negotiated derivative transactions with institutional counterparties to hedge the market risk of some or all of its positions in such securities; and/or (4) continue to hold such securities for investment purposes. Any such transactions may be effected at any time and from time to time. In reaching any determination as to its future course of action, Exor may take into consideration various factors, such as FCA's business and prospects, other developments concerning FCA, other business opportunities available to Exor, and general economic and stock market conditions, including, but not limited to, the market price of the common shares of FCA.

As a result of these activities, Exor may suggest, or take a position with respect to, potential changes in the operations, management, or capital structure of FCA as a means of enhancing shareholder value. Such suggestions or positions may relate to one or more of the transactions described in Item 4(a) through (j) of Schedule 13D under Rule 13d-1(a), including, without limitation, such matters as disposing of one or more businesses; selling or merging FCA or acquiring other companies or businesses; changing strategies; adopting, not adopting, modifying, or eliminating certain types of anti-takeover measures; restructuring FCA's capitalization; reviewing dividend and compensation policies; entering into agreements with third parties relating to acquisitions of securities issued or to be issued by FCA; entering into agreements with the management of FCA relating to acquisitions of shares of FCA by members of management, issuance of options to management, or their employment by FCA.

ITEM 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a) (b) As a result of the Merger, Exor beneficially owns 375,803,870 common shares of FCA, representing approximately 32.20% of FCA's common shares based on 1,167,181,255 common shares outstanding following the Merger as of October 13, 2014 (or approximately 31.26% of FCA's issued common shares including treasury shares). In addition, Exor holds 375,803,870 special voting shares. Exor's voting power in FCA is approximately 47.69%, calculated as the ratio of (i) the aggregate number of common shares and special voting shares beneficially owned by Exor and (ii) the aggregate number of outstanding common shares and special voting shares of FCA (or approximately 46.65% based on the aggregate issued common shares and special voting shares including treasury shares).

Exor has voting power and dispositive powers on the common shares of FCA as follows:

- (i) Sole power to vote or to direct the vote: 375,803,870 common shares;
- (ii) Shared power to vote or to direct the vote: 0 common shares;
- (iii) Sole power to dispose or to direct the disposition of: 375,803,870 common shares;
- (iv) Shared power to dispose or to direct the disposition of: 0 common shares.

Furthermore, the following persons listed in Item 2(a)(c) above beneficially own common shares of FCA.

- Mr. Sergio Marchionne holds of record 6,832,411 common shares (including common shares purchased on October 14, 2014 as described under Item 5(c)) and 16,920,000 stock options exercisable within 60 days under FCA equity incentive plans. Therefore, Mr. Marchionne may be deemed to own beneficially 23,752,411 common shares in aggregate; and
- Mr. John Elkann owns 133,000 common shares of record.

The persons named above have the sole voting power and sole dispositive power in respect of the entire number of shares indicated in this Item 5, above. There are no other persons known to have the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds from the sale of, such securities.

(c) Except as set forth below or otherwise in this Schedule 13D, neither Exor nor any persons listed in Item 2(a)(c) above, have effected any transactions with respect to common shares of FCA during the past 60 days:

- On October 14, 2014, Mr. Sergio Marchionne acquired 335,745 common shares of FCA by exercising his right under Italian law to purchase shares subject to cash exit rights exercised by other Fiat shareholders in connection with the Merger; the acquisition was carried out off-market at a price of Euro 7.727 per share.

(d) Not applicable.

(e) Not applicable.

ITEM 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

In connection with the Merger, FCA assumed the sponsorship of (i) the Fiat S.p.A. July 2014 Stock Options to CEO (see Exhibits 2 and 3 hereto), (ii) the November 2006 Stock Option Plan (see Exhibit 2 hereto) and (iii) the Long Term Incentive Plan approved on April 4, 2012 (see Exhibit 4 hereto) (collectively, the "FCA Equity Incentive Plans"), pursuant to which the common shares and stock options of FCA described under Item 5 above were granted.

Other than the FCA Equity Incentive Plans mentioned above, there are no contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) among the persons named in Item 2 and between such persons and any person with respect to any securities of FCA, including but not limited to transfer or voting of any of the securities, finder's fees, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits, division of profits or loss, or the giving or withholding of proxies.
